Dear Mr. Vandermaas:

Re: Ontario Provincial Police File 253-10-07-0120
Ontario Civilian Commission on Police Services File 07-COM-0375

---

We are writing in response to your request for a review of the decision by Superintendent M. MacLachlan, on behalf of the Commissioner of the Ontario Provincial Police, regarding your complaint involving Provincial Constable M. Mobbs and Provincial Constable S. Beasley.

The Ontario Civilian Commission on Police Services is a civilian agency which is independent of and autonomous from the police services of this Province. Your file was presented to a Review Panel.

The Panel considered the contents of the file including the initial complaint, the correspondence you sent to our office for review, the investigation file provided by the Professional Standards Bureau of the Ontario Provincial Police and the decision by Superintendent MacLachlan.

Upon review, the Panel examined your complaint in detail, and were satisfied that the conclusions reached by the Ontario Provincial Police are not unreasonable. We are aware of your concerns outlined in your correspondence, however, having taken all of the available information into consideration, the Panel is of the view that there are not sufficient grounds or reasons to change the decision made under s. 64(6) of the Police Services Act. Therefore, the Ontario Civilian Commission on Police Services is confirming the decision dated August 2, 2007.

Please be advised that under Part V of the Police Services Act, s.72(12), this decision is final and binding and will not be reviewed by the Commission. Accordingly, our file is now closed.

Sincerely,
ONTARIO CIVILIAN COMMISSION ON POLICE SERVICES
